

LYMM WINE AND BEER CIRCLE NEWSLETTER MAY 2017

Last Club Night

This was our Ruby celebration. 54 people, including 6 guests, attended our meeting. Tony entertained us with reminiscences from the past 40 years and we toasted the club with pink fizz. Thank you to Keith and Judy for organizing a 70's quiz and the red theme continued in our refreshments of red velvet cake and ruby port. The evening ended with a powerpoint of photos and 70s music. Thank you to all those who lent me their photo collection. If anyone would like a copy of the powerpoint I could put it on a memory stick for them.

Aunty Jean's Column

WINOS WHO LUNCH

We are taking a summer break from this activity. We will resume our meetings in the autumn. Look out for the dates in future newsletters.

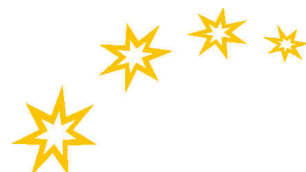

CRAFTY WINOS

The next meeting will be on June 6th at Julie Fowler's starting at 7pm. Bring along any craft you would like to do or learn.

THE WINE CIRCLE'S GOT TALENT

The committee is hoping to put together a future event using all you wonderful people. So if you have any talent hiding under a bushel please tell a committee member. This could be anything from magic tricks, playing the spoons, doing a recitation, singing to stand up comedy. You name it we are interested!

The Garrick

The new Season Prog will be released in June/July . If you would like to come on the email list for this group do let me know. No commitment is necessary, if you don't like what the Garrick has to offer when I send you details you just don't order any tickets.

How it works: I send you details of Monday night performances and you let me know which plays you want to see and how many tickets. I buy on block and you pay me when I give you the tickets (once ordered they have to be paid for). In the event of you not being able to use the tickets it is up to you to either sell them on or give them away to LWB members, friends and family. On the actual night of any performance the Garrick Box Office may use any spare tickets. You do not have to be a couple, or have transport as we often arrange to car share.

If you are presently on the list and want to come off just let me know – if I do not hear from you I will assume you want to stay on the list. Jean

Dates for your diary

Graeme Shrigley and Olwen Astbury are organising a bowling day at Outrington Bowling Club on July 9th from 11 am. to 3 pm. Turn up just before 11am and bring a picnic. Non bowlers/observers are very welcome with their picnics.

Sylvia and Chris will be holding their Annual BBQ on 15th July starting at 5pm.

A very early reminder. The Annual Dinner will be held a Lymm Golf Club on 17th March 2018

Caravanning in Anglesey

The May Day weekend camp at Taihirion Farm, near Pentraeth on Anglesey, saw ten units plus two visitors Sylvia and Chris in a beautiful setting that boasted wonderful views of Snowdonia, (weather permitting), open fields and friendly farmers. Some campers decamped for a pub on Thursday evening, others BBQ'd. Walks organised by Rob were superb, as pubs were included, but Mother Nature saw fit through tide times, to prevent us from visiting a small mariners' church via a causeway. Rob did however find some "perfectly delightful rocks" on which to sit for lunch.

Visits were made to various places - Camaes, Bull, Red Wharf, and Benllech Bays, Menai, Plas Newydd House and Gardens, a motor museum and an art gallery. We also visited the nearby disused church by kind permission of Alun's father who had the key. The church itself had historical links to the Tudor Period and inside was a fine example of an ornate marble tomb second only to one that exists in Westminster Abbey. We held our usual Gin Club and BBQ'd each evening and we gathered for food and bubbly to celebrate the erection of Bob and Pauline's new awning.

Our thanks go to Rob and Perpetua for organising a great weekend.

Footnote:

Since Eric walked onto the field and hobbled off on crutches, caravanning has now been re-classified as a dangerous pastime.

CARAVANNERS HOLIDAY INFORMATION

Directions to the Clent Hills Caravan Site

Down M6, and onto M5. Make sure you get in the correct lane. Leave the M5 at junction 3, and take A456 to Kidderminster. In 1.2 miles, at roundabout take B4551, 1st exit, to Bromsgrove and Romsley After 2 miles, in Romsley, turn right at the Sun Inn. The turn to the site is 0.6 miles from junction, and is signposted. This is Fieldhouse Lane. The site is about 0.3 miles down this road, and the entrance is well signed.

Just a quick note. If you want to stop for lunch before the site the last service station is Hilton Park on the M6. There is nowhere suitable after leaving the motorway.

As usual the caravanners will be meeting up at the various bank holidays throughout the season. The committee thought it was a good idea to give everyone advance notice so that non caravanners who may like to join us could look for nearby accommodation and so take part in our walks and bbqs.

Spring Bank – Clent Hills organised by Sue Brookes and Stewart Daniels
